La didattica dell'inglese ai tempi del Covid-19 Autopubblicato

We live in a technical society and we are used to thinking that everything that happens has an external cause, every movement an impetus from another force. The positivist psychologists have taught us that a child's soul is a tabula rasa, in which we will find only what other people will write there. Therefore society tries to indoctrinate us, in the good and bad senses of the word. Therefore, the human person is used to listening only to others, no longer pays attention to the inspirations of the heart, which come from the Spirit. It is a privilege of artists to have inspirations, but not exclusively. In the spiritual life everyone must be an artist and construct their own life under the guidance of the supreme Artist. As Saint Ignatius of Loyola said: It is not the richness of science which satisfies the soul, but feeling and tasting things from within. This Book deals with Prayer and Spiritual life, with the experience of Grace and Goodness, through discernment of evil and human passions in everyday experience. It is a beautiful and simple proposal to construct our spiritual life through Discernment and Prayer of the Heart

Business Planning. Turning an Idea Into a Reality. Nuova Ediz. Rowman & Littlefield Publishers

This book is about the "mystical" experiences I made during seven years of spiritual research, from 2005 to 2012. This journey began with the death of my mother. She was an artist and a researcher of spiritual manuscripts and Masters that I didn't completely understand, and still can't. However, through readings, active meditation and travels to India, I've learned to believe in spiritual and scientific theories without the community's approval, relying only on what has been "shown" to me, on what always "comes back" to me daily. This book's title comes from the conflict between the word Evolution, a scientific term indicating cells that adapt over time without the help of a "superior Being", and the word Spiritual, connected with religion and faith, something without a scientific explanation. Let's relate these two terms: Evolution = Spirit + Science. We must change our beliefs and convictions by questioning what becomes dogma and limits us in our Evolution, always respecting what has been taught to us. ABOUT THE AUTHOR Alessandro Valerio, aka "cocioale", is an evolutionary growth enthusiast and, in particular, he has been passionate about Financial Education, Bitcoins and other cryptocurrencies, since 2011. He has followed the birth and development of cryptocurrencies in Italy and founded the Twim Institute, Bitcoin Trieste, the Cashflow Club of Trieste and Creare Ricchezza (Creating Wealth). He is a "Bitcoin Foundation Italy" advisor and is often called as a commentator on television broadcasts. He organizes training initiatives open to all in the north-east area of Italy and especially in Trieste. He helps businesses and private citizens to integrate the opportunities arising from the Economic, Social and Spiritual world into their personal and professional life.

2020 Association of Catholic Publishers third place award in theology 2020 Catholic Press Association third place award in Pope Francis books The dangerous tendency to reduce theological positions to political ones has always fueled divisions in the Church, and it plagues debates surrounding Pope Francis's teaching today. This collection of essays was born of a landmark international symposium designed to promote theological understanding by contextualizing the thought of Pope Francis—from his understanding of history to his theology of mission—within important theological conversations rarely heard in the US Catholic Church. Its contributors demonstrate decisively that Pope Francis's magisterium is the fruit of a profound and distinctive, yet deeply Catholic, intellectual engagement with the theological and ecclesial traditions of the Church.

Before Elena Ferrante there was Grazia Deledda. When Giovanna's husband, Costantino, is convicted of a murder he claims he did not commit, she comes under pressure from her family to divorce him and marry a wealthy landowner who has always admired her. This she does, but the new marriage is an unhappy one and Giovanna remains firmly in love with Costantino. Following new evidence, Costantino is acquitted and returns to his home village, embarking on an affair with his former wife that seems destined to end in tragedy. In 1926, Grazia Deledda became the first Italian woman to be awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature. She was born in Sardinia and the life, people and customs of that Mediterranean island pervade her work. Praise for Grazia Deledda ' Before Elena Ferrante there was Grazia Deledda. ' Matt Reimann ' Deledda belongs to more than just her own day. She does more than reproduce the temporary psychological condition of her period... what she does is to create the passionate complex of a primitive populace. ' DH Lawrence The Nobel Prize in Literature 1926 was awarded to Grazia Deledda ' for her idealistically inspired writings which with plastic clarity picture the life on her native island and with depth and sympathy deal with human problems in general ' .

Starting a new business requires a wide range of activities and skills: you will need to analyze the market and competition, define your target market, formulate your value proposition, and make appropriate choices about production, promotion and distribution. In addition—even if you are not an accounting expert—you must also understand the consequences of all your choices on your company's financial results, as well as be able to estimate the financial value of your project. This book provides a framework within which to frame start-up activities, providing a number of strategic and operational tools for setting up an entrepreneurial project, whether it is a new venture or a new initiative within an existing enterprise. For years I've taught business planning in universities and mentored entrepreneurial groups in incubators and innovation centres, and this book is the fruit of that experience. Compared to many other texts on business start-ups, this book aims to combine methodological rigor with a very practical and concrete approach.

The Art of Purifying the Heart Soho Press

In the wee hours of a 1960s Tokyo morning, a dead body is found under the rails of a train, and the victim's face is so badly damaged that police have a hard time figuring out the victim's identity. Only two clues surface: an old man, overheard talking in a distinctive accent to a young man, and the word "kameda." Inspector Imanishi leaves his beloved bonsai and his haiku and goes off to investigate—and runs up against a blank wall. Months pass in fruitless questioning, in following up leads, until the case is closed, unsolved. But Imanishi is dissatisfied, and a series of coincidences lead him back to the case. Why did a young woman scatter pieces of white paper out of the window of a train? Why did a bar girl leave for home right after Imanishi spoke to her? Why did an actor, on the verge of telling Imanishi something important, drop dead of a heart attack? What can a group of nouveau young artists possibly have to do with the murder of a quiet and "saintly" provincial old ex-policeman? Inspector Imanishi investigates. Digital history is an emerging field that draws on digital technology and computational methods. A global enterprise that invites scholars worldwide to join forces, it presents exciting and novel ways we might explore, understand and represent the past. Hannu Salmi provides the most compelling introduction to digital history to date. Beginning with an examination of the origins of the digital study of history, he goes on to discuss the question of how history exists in a digitized form. He introduces basic concepts and ideas in digital history, including databases and archives, interdisciplinarity and public engagement. Outlining the problems and methods in the study of big data, both textual and visual, particular attention is paid to the born-digital era: the contemporary age that exists primarily in digital form. What is Digital History? is essential reading for students of history and other humanities fields, as well as anyone interested in how digitization and digital cultures are transforming the study of history. Analysis Archaeologica. An International Journal of Western Mediterranean Archaeology (2017)

In 1977, a shy teenager with an Afro and an attitude signed a record deal. More than thirty years and thirty-nine remarkable albums later, Prince was still touring and making music until his untimely death in 2016. One of the last great superstars, he crossed boundaries of race and sex, created a brand-new sound and earned a reputation as a legendary live performer and a musical genius. SLAVE TO THE RHYTHM goes behind the scenes at Paisley Park for an exclusive interview with Prince, in which he talks openly about his battle with the music industry, about his first wife, his life and how he makes music. Interviews with family members, friends, fellow musicians, producers, dancers and managers shed light on perhaps the most misunderstood, and most elusive, icon of our time. Tracing Prince's music through jazz, soul, funk, punk and hip-hop and exploring the music industry at large, Liz Jones's masterful biography is the definitive guide to America's funkiest son.
