reflected in the title "Sciences and Empires", is not a currently-accepted sub-discipline of the history of science; rather, it refers to a set of questions which found autonomy only recently.
The terminology was strongly debated by the participants and, as is frequently suggested in this book, awaits fuller clarification.

Extrait : "Ce jour-là, Fontanet et moi, tous deux élèves de cinquième sous M. Brard, ayant quitté le collège à quatre heures et demie, au son de la cloche, selon la coutume, nous descendons la rue du Cherche-Midi, suivis de madame Tourtour, attachée à la famille Fontanet, et de Justine, que mon père avait surnommée la Catastrophe parce qu'elle déclenche ordinairement autour d'elle les fureurs du feu, de l'air et des eaux." À PROPOS DES ÉDITIONS LIGARAN : Les éditions LIGARAN proposent des versions numériques de grands classiques de la littérature ainsi que des livres rares, dans les domaines suivants : • Fiction : roman, poésie, théâtre, jeunesse, policier, libertin. • Non fiction : histoire, essais, biographies, pratiques. Méthodologie et préhistoire africaine British Archaeological Reports Limited Pour la première fois au bord d'un lac (Chalain, Jura), l'architecture des maisons néolithiques est bien conservée, ce qui permet d'en proposer une reconstitution détaillée. A partir des milliers de bois travaillés, préservés dans les couches archéologiques, c'est la forêt de la fin du 4^e millénaire qui se livre, puis les techniques d'abattage et la préparation des bois d'œuvre. Mais cette forêt secondaire issue de rejets de souche, c'est aussi la couverture arborée que les cultivateurs néolithiques défrichent et cherchent à reproduire, après une ou deux années de cultures céréalières. La forêt est encore davantage, car elle a enregistré les variations de la densité de population, au travers de la progression ou de la régression des fronts de défrichements. Cet ouvrage, comme les précédents, s'inscrit dans un programme de recherche pluridisciplinaire en vue de renouveler les problématiques et d'atteindre le niveau de raisonnements globaux où toutes les tendances de la recherche peuvent ensemble proposer les liaisons par et au-delà de leurs domaines spécifiques.

Recueil Penant Editions L'Harmattan Salivary Diagnostics surveys one of the most exciting areas of research in oral biology. Regarded as the mirror of the body, saliva has immense potential to yield real clinical improvements in our ability to diagnose, and hence treat, oral and systemic conditions. The composition of saliva and other oral fluids reflects the tissue fluid levels of therapeutic, hormonal, and immunological molecules, as well as the presence of markers for systemic and oral disease.

Ethnologie gauloise: partie. Preuves intellectuelles, Le génie gaulois : caractère national, druidisme, institutions, industrie, etc Presses Université Laval

Hinting at Rimbaud's provocative dictum that "I is an other," this anthology discusses a wide-ranging array of twentieth-century and contemporary minority American modes of life writing, prompted by the following questions: Who (else) hides behind this "I" that the author-narrator-character "contractually" claims to be? What generic, aesthetic, political and socio-cultural issues are at stake in a conception of the self as other? The essays analyze autobiographical works from major Native American writers (John Milton Oskison and Louise Erdrich), an African American music-hall artist (Josephine Baker) and writers (John Edgar Wideman and Ta-Nehisi Coates), Caribbean American writers (Jamaica Kincaid and Edwidge Danticat), and Asian American writers (Ruth Ozeki, Cathy Park Hong, Theresa Hak Kyung Cha, and Loung Ung). They shed light on autobiography as a collaborative writing and reading practice, rather than as a self-oriented genre, probing the "relational" dimension of life writing. Building on the feminist theorization of relationality and the political and aesthetic power of relational bonds, they put forward the necessarily intersubjective dynamics of minority American "self-conceptions" which originate in the writers' experiences of otherness. The articles highlight that the relational ethnic self characteristically inhabits the liminal spaces where modes of life writing overlap and can thrive in dialogical intertextual readings. They foreground the subversive, cathartic, and memorializing potential of minority American modes of "other-writing" whose ontological dimension is manifest in the writers' quest for a sense of repossession and agency, beyond communal boundaries. Contributing to the up-to-date critical discussion on relationality, not as a genre, but rather as a reading and "a storytelling practice," they examine the ways it participates in a global, transcultural approach to ethno-racial issues in the United States.
