"This is the sixth edition of a classic reference on art marketing, which was first published in the 1970s.

Straightforward, well structured, & extremely informative, it begins where books such as THE ARTIST'S MARKET...end. Simply put, the book has become a standard in its field... (It) discusses marketing methods such as organizing sales parties, exhibitions, adding that exhibitions built around a particular "theme" (especially when tied to a related public event) are most profitable. THE ART MARKETING HANDBOOK stems from Goodman's three decades of experience advertising artists & art dealers. In addition to explaining how artists can earn more from increased art sales, he also shares information about finding qualified prospects, selling to collectors & businesses, pricing art work ethics in the art market, publishing, promotion, contracts & proper documentation of sales, copyrights, & wholesaling .... Filled with specific examples from artists Goodman has worked with over the years, the book remains enjoyable reading as well as an extremely information & motivating resource." Laurie S. Hurwitz, Senior Editor, AMERICAN ARTIST. To order: GEE TEE BEE, 11901 Sunset, #102, Los Angeles, CA 90049 $60.00 plus $3.50 (S&H). "No other medium is as magical and enjoyable as watercolor." So says artist and author Michael Reardon. In Watercolor Techniques: Painting Light and Color in Landscapes and Cityscapes, Reardon covers it all, from answers to beginners' most vexing problems (What is the proper ratio of pigment and water? How do I lay down an even wash? Why do my paintings look so washed out?) to understanding the trifecta of perspective, value, and color. He shows how to paint whites that sparkle and shadows that glow and how to conjure the atmosphere of a particular place and time. Painters of all skill levels will see--and feel--the difference in their work. • Packed with expert advice for infusing scenes with light and color • Includes special tips and techniques for painting architectural subjects • Illustrated with inspiring paintings of scenes from around the world • 8 start-to-finish demonstrations show key concepts in action "Light, as it glances off a facade, glimmers off the water or gleams off polished marble, is always inspiring. Color, with its infinite array of hues, is always irresistible. Searching for ways to make them harmonize and tell a story can Shirley Trevena is a well-known and successful watercolourist, with a huge international fan base. Throughout her career she has pushed the boundaries of watercolour and is regarded as one of Britain's most innovative artists in that medium. Shirley's watercolours are visually inspiring, vibrant in colour and strong in composition. This, her third book, shows how she achieves her stunning results by pushing the medium to its limits. Shirley takes the reader through 10 paintings in great detail and shares all her professional tips and painting secrets. In addition, each painting has large close-up details so the reader can really see all the brushstrokes. Shirley breaks the conventional rules of watercolour in many different ways: through her compositions, strange perspectives, fascinating textures and, above all, the strength and vibrancy of her colour combinations. In Breaking the Rules of Watercolour, Shirley explains all her painting decisions and demonstrates her techniques at every stage. In this way, she encourages all watercolourists, whatever their level, to experiment with the medium and produce exciting and challenging work of their own.

In this innovative book, author and crafter Carolyn Dahl demonstrates how printing with a natural material--covering it with a medium and pressing it to a surface--allows artists to see and appreciate exquisite, often-overlooked details and make physical contact with the earth that sustains us. Natural Impressions begins with practical guidance on collecting materials and objects, along with basic instructions for making a successful nature print. Divided into three sections--leaves, flowers, and fish--the book clearly demonstrates a variety of techniques using an array of mediums; for example, paints/pigments, bleach, collage, markers, textile paints, and even rubber stamps. Plus, a special section details how nature prints can meet today's technology with photocopying and computer manipulation.
